LIGHTNING

What is Lightning?

Lightning is a program available on the web for our customers to use in assisting with prize distribution.

Why should I use Lightning?

This is an awesome program for large schools when they are running a magazine sale with several turn in days

What are the advantages of using this program?

Users can enter information from anywhere, anytime and several users can enter information in this shared database. Lightning offers 7 different reports to assist the customer in prize distribution.

Can the Lightning Program be used with other products?

Yes, it is not just for magazine sales. Lightning can be used with cookie dough, brochures, and any other program where prizes are used as a sales incentive!
